

The Grande Prairie Children's Literature Roundtable Proudly Presents...

Books for Classrooms

What is Books for Classrooms?

Books for Classrooms is an initiative of the Children's Literature Roundtable. Our goal is to get kids reading high quality books that they will enjoy, and we would like to meet this goal by providing a selection of great children's books to deserving classrooms.

Who can apply for Books for Classrooms?

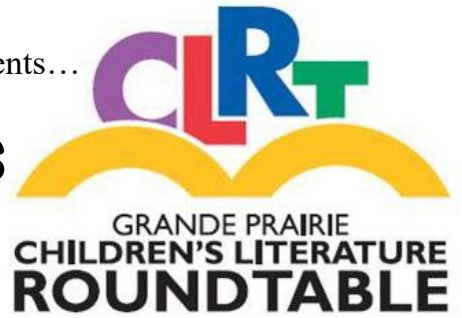

Any classroom teacher from Kindergarten to Grade 9 within the city of Grande Prairie and Clairmont can apply to receive a selection of great children's books for their classroom.

How can a class apply for Books for Classrooms?

1. Download an entry form from our website (www.gpclrt.org).
2. Convince us that you need these books!
3. Let your imagination run wild!
4. Be as creative as possible in convincing us why you need books using any format or any media. We want to know why we should choose your class to receive brand new books.
5. Email us your entry form and project submission by February 5th, 2020 at mail@gpclrt.org. Please have your project ready to either present the following week or to drop off.
7. Winners will be contacted and the awarding of prizes will be arranged for mid-February .

- In submitting this form, I understand that, in agreement with F.O.I.P., Grande Prairie Children's Literature Roundtable is permitted to publish photos and information of the winning entries, including the teacher and all students in the project.

The Grande Prairie Children's Literature Roundtable Proudly Presents...

Books for Classrooms

Project Deadline: February 5th, 2020

Email: mail@gpclrt.org

website: www.gpclrt.org

facebook.com/gpclrt

Required Information:

Teacher's Name: _____

Grade: _____

School: _____

Email Address: _____

Please give us a brief summary of your project:

Please type here...

Please tell us three specific books or topic areas that your class would be most interested in receiving if you were to win:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Please have your project ready to present by February 5th, 2020. We will contact you to arrange a presentation date. Thank you!

Generously sponsored by:

We♥ Books for Classrooms!

Need some ideas to help convince us that your class needs these books? Past projects have included...

- puppet shows about the importance of reading
- rewritten or parody songs to involve books or reading
- skits about a love for reading and needing more books
- videos about favourite books
- posters about the importance of books
- class poems about books/reading
- student created books about reading or reading habits
- Powerpoint presentations or videos