

- Learning around Grande Prairie...
- Attend a literacy program at the Library during the week!
 - Borrow a book (parent resource or children's book) from the Parent Link Centre's library.
 - Borrow a Literacy Bag from the Parent Link Centre.
 - Attend a music/singing program with your child(ren) at the Parent Link Centre. Try Singing with Liz (Wednesdays 2:30-4:00 or Fridays 9:30-11:00) or Celebrating Story and Song (Thursdays 1:00-2:30).
 - Visit Lifelong Learning for fun activities on January 27 from 3:00-5:00, including Play-Doh, Colouring Contest, and Word Games.
 - Attend the Puppet Show (11:30-12:00); Passport to the World (1:30-2:15); and/or Your Family's Story (4:00-5:00) program at the Library on January 27.
 - Visit Bev Tosh's War Brides: One-Way Passage art exhibit at The Prairie Art Gallery!
 - Drop by the Mango Languages booth in the Library to learn to speak Pirate (and even meet a real Pirate)!

- Learning at home & around town...
- Sort colours and count the number of items in each load of laundry to practice math skills.
 - Follow a recipe together. Measuring different ingredients will help to learn about food groups.
 - Research something new on the Internet that interests your family to improve reading & comprehension.
 - Go for a walk around the neighbourhood and read all the street signs.
 - Do puzzles with your family and talk about the different pictures on the puzzles.
 - Sing songs with your family.
 - Find things that begin with each letter of the alphabet at the grocery store.
 - Make a list of items you would pack if you were going on a one-way voyage.
 - Visit www.busytowmmysteries.com to play learning games with Richard Scarry and friends!
 - Find out how many countries are competing in the 2012 Olympic Games (including Canada).

Grande Prairie's
PASSPORT
 to LEARNING

It's easy to practice learning in the things you do every day. Take the journey during the week of January 23-27 and learn new things along the way.

Complete and check off at least 5 activities on your passport to be eligible for prizes! Drop off your passport on Family Literacy Day (January 27) at any of the participating locations listed in this brochure. See www.gpclrt.org for a full schedule of events.
